Jay,

Your new email system is probably fine since I was the malfunction.

Temp log attached.

Scott

Scott:

Bear with me, perhaps I missed it (our new email system frequently does not make finding attachments easy) – but it seems that your just-sent email did not have any attachments (e.g., temp log?)

Please send a temp log (indicating TOC) so I can corroborate the Encana TOC, or point out that I missed seeing it on the earlier email.

Regards,

Jay Krabacher

Thanks, Scott:

Encana can defer the CBL on this well.
