RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS

12:16 pm Report from the Director

Updates regarding: the status of the Picance Basin stakeholder group, the new pooling legislation which will require rulemaking, the status of the COGCC budget, an update on the Engineering Group's gathering data on Bradenhead pressures, Broomfield 2A's and the LOGIC rulemaking petition.

Commissioner Comments

Chairperson Benton requests comments from Commissioners regarding the petition for rulemaking.

Commissioner Boigon states that the Commission has taken too long in responding to the request.

Commissioner Overturf agreed.

Commissioner Hawkins stated the Commission must take action on the petition.

Chairperson Benton directed staff to put this issue on the July agenda for the Commission to decide.

12:44 pm Report from the Secretary

Addresses the COGCC's continuing backlog, including 205 pending applications, the majority of which are protested. Recognizes Hearing Officer Pumphrey and AAG Larsen for their efforts in getting as many items as possible on the consent agenda. Thirteen matters did not make it on the consent agenda before the deadline, which will be disposed of during a conference call via a special hearing. Finally, the COGCC is still working towards an electronic filing system.

Commissioner Comments

Commissioner Wolk discusses the issues of VOC testing.

Commissioner Overturf would like a presentation/report on SOGER review.

Commissioner Boigon agrees with Commissioner Overturf.

Chairperson Benton requests a map illustrating the impact of the 2,500' setback initiative on oil and gas operations in the state.

Commissioner Jolly requests Anadarko to present in July regarding the pipeline shut down.
