15. DATE OF WORK

The well was temporarily abandoned 10/87 due to a hole in the casing. Oil prices and production did not justify the repair costs and the well has remained temporarily abandoned.

Pedco Resources Company plans to return the well to active status and hereby requests an extension of its temporarily abandoned status for a period of six months until December 15, 1990, to allow action plans to be prepared and partner approval to be obtained.
